CARIBOU COUNTY FAIR & RODEO

2024 GRAND MARSHALS

The Caribou County Fair and Rodeo holds a special place in our hearts for a number of reasons. Glenna showed steers when she was young. Lawrence Mickelson taught 4H and taught her how to show. She was active in 4H sewing and cooking. She went on to work at the court house for Cecil Aldafer and Ed Duren. She sent out 4H newsletters and helped organize 4H trips to Alpine, Wyoming.

Her favorite memory of the fair is riding in the Jr. and Sr. posse, which Mae Wheatley taught. She rode the outside spoke of the wagon wheel and it was so thrilling as she set the speed of the wheel. She remembers performing at the local rodeos with her cousin Mark Steele. What fun! Glenna can still remember meeting Lynn at the fair and said he fell for her horse...not her! Lynn and Glenna attended Grace High School, where Lynn was active in football, basketball and on the state champion wrestling team.

They were high school sweet hearts and graduated together the same year from Grace High. That fall they both enrolled in college at Ricks. Lynn attended Ricks on a football scholarship. He participated in football and wrestling and the team went undefeated. After graduating from Ricks, Lynn and Glenna were married and enrolled at ISU. They both received their Bachelor degrees, Lynn graduated in Science and Physical Education and Glenna in Elementary and special Education. Eventually, they made the decision to move back to the ranch and help work as Glenna's father, Val Steele's health was deteriorating from wounds from WWII. Settling in Lago, they built a home and raised their children are Billy, Danny, Jared, Cami Taggart and Jeni Burr. They also became the proud grandparents to 17 grandkids. A favorite memory of the fair was when Alice Smith asked Lynn and Clinton Peck to be pick up men at the Little Buckaroo Rodeo, they did this for many years until it ended. They enjoyed supporting all five of their children picking out their steers out of their cattle herd in Diamond Creek and raising them to take them to the fair, they even had a few Grand Champions! They have also enjoyed watching their grandkids raising steers for the fair. They have loved to go support them and see old friends and make new ones! They wish to compliment the fair board on the outstanding job they do! It is an exhausting job and requires long hours of work. Thank you for allowing them to be this year's Grand Marshals, they are deeply honored.

In 1987, Trails West was founded on the premise that to serve the customer best, you needed a no-frills operation with honesty as a core value. Over three decades later, this is still the cornerstone of our business model. We pride ourselves in providing the best bang for your buck in our industry. Our business has grown from the original one-model operation to an entire line of horse trailers, stock trailers, horse trailers with living quarters and snow mobile trailers, all of which are produced in-house at our operating facility in Preston, Idaho.

HORSE & MULE SHOW

DEPARTMENT L

PERFORMANCE RULES

Bridle Path Hack (Hunt Seat):

- This class will be judged 60 percent on performance, 30 percent on conformation, and 10 percent on appointments at the discretion of the judge.
- Horses to be shown at a walk, trot, and canter both ways of the ring. Horses to back readily in a straight line and stand quietly. Hand gallop at discretion of the judge.
- Horses are to be reversed to the inside (away from the rail). They may be required to reverse at the walk or trot at the discretion of the judge, but shall not be asked to reverse at the canter. Horses must be brought to flat-footed walk before changing gaits.
- Entries shall be shown with English snaffle (no shank), Pelham (with two reins), kimblewick and/or full bridle all with cavesson nosebands and plain leather browbands. Saddle hunting or forward seat; may have suede seat and/or suede insert on skirt.

Western Classes:

- Entries shall be shown with a stock saddle with good working equipment. There shall be no discrimination against any standard western bit. Horses may be ridden with snaffle, curb, spade, and bar bits or hackamore. Curb chain or straps may be used but must be at least 1/2 inch in width and lie flat against the jaws of the horse. No wire, twisted chain, tacks, or other metal may be used under the jaw or in the mouth, regardless of how padded or taped. No hackamore bits, easy stops, tie-down, tack collars or other equipment regarded as unsafe or inhumane, will be permitted.
- Horses are to be ridden astride in the ladies western pleasure, side saddle not acceptable tack for this class.
- The rider has option to the use of spurs, chaps, and carrying of rope, reata, slicker, and hobbles. Rider must be attired in western hat, long sleeve shirt, and boots.
- Horses may be ridden with either romal or split reins--except in classes where noted, reins will be held in one hand and cannot be changed during performance. Snaffle bit is a smooth bit with broken mouthpiece with a conventional O-ring, egg butt, or D-ring with ring no larger than 4 inches or smaller than 2 inches with an optional loose leather curb strap. Tom thumbs or long shank type snaffle are not acceptable in any snaffle bit class.
- Hackamore is only a rawhide or leather braided or rope bosal. Side pulls not accepted. Absolutely no iron will be permitted under the jaws regardless of how padded or taped.

HORSE - 3-YEARS-OLD AND UNDER

HORSE & MULE SHOW

DEPARTMENT L

Western Pleasure Classes:

- Open to horses of any breed or combination of breeds 14.1 hands and over normally used for pleasure to be shown at a walk, trot, lope, both ways of the ring, on a reasonable loose rein without undue restraint. Entries shall be penalized for being on the wrong lead. To be judged 60 percent performance, 30 percent on conformation, and 10 percent on appointments to enter.

Ranch Horse Pleasure:

- The ranch riding horse should simulate a horse riding outside the confines of the arena and reflect the versatility, attitude and movement of a working horse. The class is judged on the horse's ability to work at a forward, working speed, while performing the required and optional maneuvers. The required maneuvers are the walk, jog, and lope (both directions), the extended trot and extended lope at least one direction as well as stops, back and one change of direction. The optional maneuvers are side pass; turns of 360 degrees or more; change of lead (simple or flying); walk; jog or lope over poles or other reasonable maneuvers a ranch horse could perform.

Western Horsemanship:

- Western Horsemanship is designed to test horsemanship abilities of youth riders using western tack. It may be divided in two sections. Riders first follow a prescribed pattern of maneuvers at a walk, trot, or lope. Riders in walk, trot classes are not eligible for this class. Riders may be asked to ride as a group around the perimeter of the arena. Judging focuses on the rider's body position, seat in the saddle, and ability to control the horse.

Western Reining Classes:

- Horses will work a pattern and be scored on the basis of 60-80 points. Horses shall rein and handle easily with reasonable speed throughout the pattern.
- Horses to be ridden with two hands in a snaffle bit or hackamore designated class.
- Snaffle bit used as described in western classes.
- Horses will work individually. A judge may require any contestant to repeat their performance of any or all the various parts of the pattern. Horses will not be worked both ways of the ring on the rail.

WORKING COW HORSE

Friday, August 9, 2024

Immediately after Penning & Sorting

COMMITTEE

Roger HillBoard Member
Carl HatchDirector/Judge

Rules and pattern posted the day of the contest at the Rodeo Office

RULES

- A. Exhibitors may show more than one horse because each horse will be worked individually. All individual cow work will be finished first, followed by pattern work. (Refer to working cow horse dry pattern).
- B. Horses 4-years of age may compete in either event depending upon stage of training but may not compete in both sections under different headstalls and/or bit. Must comply for tack and western attire according to rules in Western Performance.
- C. Monies paid as follows:

6 entries or less	7 entries or more
60%	50%
40%	30
	20%

- D. The cattle working procedure is as follows:
 - a. One animal shall be turned into the arena and the contestant shall hold the animal at one end of the arena long enough to indicate to the judge that the horse is watching the cow.
 - b. The cow shall then be allowed to run down the side of the arena and the contestant shall attempt to turn the animal at least twice each way against the fence. The cow shall then be taken to the center of the arena and circled once each way. A new cow may be given to the rider if the judge feels the contestant is unable to show his or her horse to the best of its ability.
 - c. Individual cows will be worked within an allotted time of two (2) minutes with the contestant given a 30 second warning before time is up.
- E. The scoring of contestants shall be based on a scale from 60-80 points with 70 denoting an average performance. Half points may be used for performance only. Points scored for reined work and the cattle work(s) are to be totaled. In the event of a tie, the entry with the highest cattle work score shall win.

DEPARTMENT N

D. Name and contact information must be attached to the back of the artwork.

E. Entries not ready to hang WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED. No exceptions. This requires wire, or an appropriate hanging device, fastened to the back (not visible when displayed). The work must be securely affixed to a sturdy backing (no poster board or masking tape), preferably matted or framed, any color is acceptable. Please note that craftsmanship in mounting the work will be considered in the judge's evaluations.

F. Professional artists must submit work in the Professional Class only and will be included in the judging for Best of Show and Grand Champion awards. Artists may post a sale price with contact information attached to or near their work. This artwork will be hung as a group and apart from the Youth and Adult Classes. (The term "professional" in this instance refers to artists who regularly sell their work.) Please contact the department chairperson with any questions.

G. All entries are welcome unless they have earned a ribbon in a previous year. Such entries may be accepted "For Display Only" and will not be included in the judging.

H. Artists younger than 18 will enter their work in the Junior Division.

I. Officials reserve the right to disqualify and not display any work that does not conform to the most current rules and regulations for this division and department, are deemed objectionable, or are not appropriate for family viewing as determined by fair staff and county fair board members.
