GENERAL PAGEANT

CONDUCT OF CONTESTANTS

1. Caribou County Rodeo Queen or Caribou County Jr Rodeo Queen contestants and titleholders are expected to conduct themselves in an exceptional manner. Unsportsmanlike conduct will not be tolerated. Such conduct could result in the contestant being disqualified and may affect eligibility to compete in future Caribou County Rodeo Queen or Caribou County Jr Rodeo Queen Pageants.
2. Harassment and arguing between contestants will not be tolerated.
3. A judge may not be approached by a contestant or any individual with the intent to influence or harass. This includes approaching a judge online or through social media. Action of this type will be reported to the Board of Directors and disqualification of that contestant could result.
4. The pageant is not officially complete until the coronation is completed.
5. Contestants are expected to abide by the Caribou County Rodeo Queen and Caribou County Jr Rodeo Queen Pageant Contestant Code of Conduct.

PAGEANT ORIENTATION

Pageant orientation will be held prior to the pageant. Attendance is mandatory including a parent of the contestant. The orientation may consist of the following:

1. An opportunity to meet the contestants, their parents, and the Board of Directors
2. A description of pageant activities with the opportunity to ask questions and receive answers about those activities
3. Prize drawings for contestants

*Drawing for the order of a contestant's appearance in all pageant activities will be drawn on the orientation day.

HOUSING & FOOD

Lodging and food will NOT be provided during the pageant. Please plan accordingly.

CELL PHONE USAGE

The possession of and/or use of electronic devices i.e.: cell phones, tablets, laptop computers, and/or any devices with internet capabilities are strictly prohibited by contestants during the competition.

TRANSPORTATION

Contestants in the Caribou County Rodeo Queen or Caribou County Jr Rodeo Queen Pageant are required to pay and be responsible for their own transportation to and from the site of the pageant and any present and/or future activities associated with the Caribou County Rodeo Queen or Caribou County Jr Rodeo Queen title. These costs and expenses will not be reimbursed.

PARENTS, RELATIVES AND FRIENDS

We welcome and encourage the presence of parents, relatives and friends of the contestants. No boyfriends will be permitted to fraternize with the contestants or to distract them. After the pageant begins, contestants cannot communicate with family or friends unless authorized. At the judges' discretion, a contestant may receive point deductions or disqualification for an infraction of this rule.

HORSES

Contestants must provide a horse to be used for the Horsemanship and presentation rides during the contest and provide your own tack and equipment. Contestants must arrange and are responsible for the care of their own horse at all times. Spurs will be allowed during the Horsemanship Competition, contestants may wear spurs during rodeo presentation rides, and coronation. Contestants must use the same horse for events including rodeo presentation rides and coronation. If your horse becomes sick, lame, or unable to perform, contestants may find a replacement horse to use. Contestants must submit veterinary check paperwork verifying inability to perform to the Pageant Director. You are responsible for finding a replacement horse as well as providing both Proof of Vaccination and a current Negative Coggins Test, before the event. If at any time any horse is deemed to be unsafe or unsound it will be removed from any event. All horses used for competition must compete in a bridle. Stallions are not allowed.

GRIEVANCES

Grievances should be immediately brought to the attention of the Pageant Director. All grievances must then be submitted in writing and delivered by the contestant to the Pageant Director or President within 15 minutes of an incident, then to be delivered to the Grievance Committee. No other grievances will be acknowledged. The Grievance Committee shall consist of the Pageant Director, President, Head Judge and a Contestant Parent selected at orientation. They will utilize a fact-finding process which will include consultation with the contestant(s), the Board of Directors and the other Judges will make a determination. That determination will be considered final. The Pageant Director and the Board of Directors have full authority over the pageant and any decision they make regarding rules and participation is final. A grievance cannot be filed based on the outcome of the pageant.

Failure to abide by rules listed within this rule book may result in disqualification or consequences to be determined by the Judges.

JUDGING GUIDELINES

Caribou County Rodeo Queen and Caribou County Jr Rodeo Queen contestants are judged in multiple categories. Caribou County Rodeo Queen and Caribou County Jr Rodeo Queen pageant scoring process will emulate the Miss Rodeo America Pageant format, with necessary changes approved to reflect the Caribou County Rodeo Queen and Caribou County Jr Rodeo Queen judged events. Please see Appendix C for Contestant's Composite Score Sheet (Scoring Breakdown) and Scoring Criteria. The judges will judge specific categories of the pageant and all judges' scores will be used. Judging will take precedence over all pageant activities and schedules.

1. Caribou County Rodeo Queen and Caribou County Jr Rodeo Queen Board of Directors will provide two to five judges, depending upon the number of contestants.
2. Judges are selected for their expertise in specific fields of the competition.
3. Contestants will be under constant observation of judges from orientation throughout the conclusion of the pageant.
4. A Head Judge will be chosen.
5. Judges may, at their discretion, deduct points if they see trainers coaching contestants from the side during Horsemanship or any part of competition, or if they witness unsportsmanlike conduct at any time.
6. Final scores will go directly to the Caribou County Rodeo Queen and Caribou County Jr Rodeo Queen CPA or auditor. The Head Judge is responsible for the integrity of the score sheets following the end of each event until the envelope can be delivered to a CPA or auditor.
7. When judging in all divisions has been completed, the auditors will determine which contestants have scored the highest in each category and in the overall scores. The highest overall score will be Caribou County Rodeo Queen or Caribou County Jr Rodeo Queen; second highest will be the 1st Attendant. Third highest will be 2nd Attendant.
8. Scoring ties in event categories will be broken by referring back to the score of the Head Judge. That score will break the tie. If a tie still remains, the score of the next judge will be used, and so on until the tie is broken.
9. A tie score for Caribou County Rodeo Queen, Caribou County Jr Rodeo Queen, 1st Attendant, 2nd Attendant will be broken by the Horsemanship scores. The contestant with the highest score in Horsemanship will receive the higher ranking.
10. All decisions made by the Judges, Board of Directors and/or the Grievance committee are final.

JUDGED CATEGORIES/EVENTS

HORSEMANSHIP

The purpose of this judged division is to select the young lady who rates highest. Areas of consideration are:

1. Horsemanship – including control of mount and the way she handles any situation which may occur.
2. Balance – the ability to sit in a saddle.
3. Positions of hands, feet and seat.
4. Mounting and dismounting.
5. Confidence, appearance, and awareness of the audience. It is not the horse, but the skill, understanding and ability of the contestant that will be judged.
6. Horse appearance – How well contestant cleaned and prepared their horse for competition.

Each contestant will ride the horse they brought to compete with the horsemanship competition. Caribou County Rodeo Queen contestants will perform one of the three patterns found in the back of this rulebook. Caribou County Jr Rodeo Queen contestants will perform pattern #1. Pattern will be selected by the judges just prior to the horsemanship competition. Contestants may be asked to dismount and mount their own horse. Contestant will complete both a presentation ride and flag presentation. Caribou County Jr Queen contestants will not be required to mount, dismount, or perform a flag presentation.
